“Blasphemers, unholy”

- The idea of blaspheming is when a person is treating something very sacred and _____ in a disrespectful or unholy way.
- Today, blaspheming is very common in our culture.
- When there is a breakdown of respect for that which is most holy, it leads to a host of problems that relate to the home.

“Having therefore these promises, dearly beloved, let us cleanse ourselves from all filthiness of the flesh and spirit, perfecting holiness in the fear of God.” 2 Corinthians 7:1

“Disobedient to parents”

- Foolishness is bound in the heart of a child. It is the parent’s job to _____ out that foolishness and replace it with respect and obedience.
- Kids desperately need boundaries, and parents must insist that they _____ in those boundaries.

- Start _____! Once they are old enough to know that you are instructing them, they must be taught that there are consequences for disobedience.

“The father of the righteous shall greatly rejoice: and he that begets a wise child shall have joy of him. Your father and your mother shall be glad, and she that bare you shall rejoice.” Proverbs 23:24-25

“Unthankful”

- If we don’t demonstrate a thankful attitude daily, we are setting up our kids for a very dangerous future.
 - They will choose the _____ kind of friends.
 - They will develop an attitude of “the world _____ me.”
 - They will become a discontent person.
 - They will develop a _____ spirit.

Practicing a positive virtue actually helps you _____ a negative one. Ephesians 4:22-29
