

Welcome!

THANK YOU FOR JOINING US THIS MORNING!

Here at CrossRoads, we exist to accomplish our mission of loving God and loving others by learning the Bible and living the Bible. It is our hope that through our services and ministries you are given the tools to build a better relationship with Christ and others.

Nothing Beats A Family

DEALING WITH THE ISSUE OF SEX | 1 CORINTHIANS 7:1-9

What does God think about it?

- First, God _____ it. Heb. 13:4, Prov. 5:18-19
- Second, God had a _____ for it.
- Third, God sets the _____ for it. 1 Cor. 7:2, 8-9

What is normal in a marriage?

- It should be happening, with _____, in the marriage relationship.
- Marriage should serve as a safeguard _____ sexual sin.

Who should talk to your kids about it?

- There's a principle in Scripture that _____ are responsible to teach their children God's ways. Eph. 6:4, Deut. 6:7, 2 Tim. 3:15

God can _____ any situation if we seek Him and get him involved.

TAKE HOME DISCUSSION

Review the 3 biblical principles that we saw in the Bible regarding sex. Who created it? What was God's purpose? What are God's boundaries for sex?

Parents: Talk with your spouse and decide who, how, and when you will discuss the issue of sex with your children.

Couples: Discuss the attitudes that were present in your home growing up regarding sex. Has this affected your perspective?

Couples: What were your anticipations about sex before marriage? Have they changed? What would you change about your sex life?

---
