ROMANS · CHURCH BIBLE PAGE #1180

- God has called us to live a life of peace.
Romans 12:18; 14:19
- “Be careful for nothing; but in every thing by prayer and supplication with thanksgiving let your requests be made known unto God. And the peace of God, which passes all understanding, shall keep your hearts and minds through Christ Jesus.” Philippians 4:6-7
- “And let the peace of God rule in your hearts, to the which also you are called in one body; and be you thankful.”
Colossians 3:15

There are three dimensions to the peace that God offers to us through Christ:

1. Peace with _____

- Jesus has made it possible for the enemies of God to be made at peace with God.
- Peace with God comes through _____ in Jesus Christ.
Romans 5:1

2. Peace with _____

- God commands us to do all that we possibly can to be at peace with _____ and dwell in unity with them.
Romans 12:18
- “Endeavoring to keep the unity of the Spirit in the bond of peace.” Ephesians 4:3

3. Peace _____ Yourself

- Internal peace is a sense of wholeness, contentment, tranquility, order, rest, and security.
- Although nearly everyone longs for this kind of peace, it eludes most people.
- The three dimensions of peace are inseparably joined by God’s design.
- If we want to experience _____ peace, we must seek harmonious relationships with God and with those around us.
Colossians 3:10-15

If _____ rules your heart, it leads to all kinds of breakdowns. But how can you truly experience peace in the midst of a stressful world?
