

- “Finally, my brethren, be strong in the Lord, and in the power of his might. Put on the whole armour of God, that ye may be able to stand against the wiles of the devil.”
Ephesians 6:10-11
- “Now unto him that is able to do exceeding abundantly above all that we ask or think, according to the power that worketh in us.” Ephesians 3:20
- Every believer can courageously win battles for God. How?

First, trust God for the “_____.”

- God has a history of using the insignificant to accomplish the _____.
- “But Jesus beheld them, and said unto them, With men this is impossible; but with God all things are possible.”
Matthew 19:26
- “But without faith it is impossible to please him: for he that cometh to God must believe that he is, and that he is a rewarder of them that diligently seek him.”
Hebrews 11:6

Second, leave your place of _____.

- Winning spiritual battles begins with trusting God in your inner heart. But, that inner trust leads to outward _____.

- We all have a comfort zone, but that is not typically where battles are _____.
- "Thou therefore, my son, be strong in the grace that is in Christ Jesus... Thou therefore endure hardness, as a good soldier of Jesus Christ." 2 Timothy 2:1, 3
- The courageous _____, while the cowardly _____.

Third, _____ with other people of courage.

- The courageous see potential; the cowardly see _____.
- "Two are better than one; because they have a good reward for their labour. For if they fall, the one will lift up his fellow: but woe to him that is alone when he falleth; for he hath not another to help him up."
Ecclesiastes 4:9-10

Fourth, fight with the _____ God has provided.

- There were two swords in all of Israel. King Saul took his sword and sat under a tree. Jonathan took his sword, and went and won a great victory.
- Some believers take God's tools and use them for God's glory, and win great victories.
- Other believers are like Saul. They simply sit in a pew or an easy chair and do _____ with the tools God has provided.
- The courageous fight with faith; the cowardly _____ in fear.
