

HOW TO KEEP KIDS FROM SATAN'S SNARES (PART TWO) 2 SAMUEL 13

Pew Bible Page 366

- King David's home was in shambles.
- David was a man of God with a heart for God, but that did not insure him a _____ and godly home.
- The Bible talks about recovering people from the snares of the devil, but how can we keep our children from ever being ensnared to begin with?
- Ultimately it's up to parents.
- Let's learn from David's negative example in this chapter and turn it into some positive principles for parents.

Parents:

Become a _____ role model for your child.
vs. 1-2

Insure that your child chooses godly _____. vs. 3-5

Resolve _____ - don't just get angry.

- David just got angry, but did nothing to _____ the situation. David's anger was not guided by correct biblical action.
- It is possible to be angry and not _____, but so many times our anger is out of control and directed in the wrong place.

- “Be ye angry, and sin not: let not the sun go down upon your wrath: Neither give place to the devil.”
Ephesians 4:26-27

- Many great people in the Bible exhibited righteous anger. Even _____ had righteous anger.
- Godliness is not the absence of anger, as long as you are filled with the right kind of anger - the kind of anger that leads you to sit down and apply biblical _____ to your problems.

Guard your family from _____.

- “Husbands, love your wives, and be not bitter against them.” Colossians 3:19
- “And, ye fathers, provoke not your children to wrath: but bring them up in the nurture and admonition of the Lord.” Ephesians 6:4
- In regards to the home and family, the key word in preventing bitterness from taking root is “_____”.
- Reconciliation is so much _____ than bitterness.
