

Living with a pure Conscience

2 Corinthians 1:8-14 Pew Bible Page # 1200

- Many times when people are under attack or feel threatened, they turn to _____ living, hoping to avoid appearing wrong.
- A guilty conscience leads to a _____ life.
- Every believer should know how to possess a pure conscience, and experience the _____ that accompanies it!

How can you have a clear conscience, both before God and man?

First, you must base your life and faith on what is _____.

- For the Christian, simplicity is found in _____!
- “But I fear, lest by any means, as the serpent beguiled Eve through his subtilty, so your minds should be corrupted from the simplicity that is in Christ.”
2 Corinthians 11:3
- Just as Satan beguiled Adam and Eve in the Garden, Satan beguiles people today with corrupted, _____ teaching.
- A man who lives in simplicity lives with _____, looking for Christ’s return! 1 Timothy 6:6

Second, you must strive to be clear and _____ before others.

- Paul was at peace with both _____ the truth, and _____ the truth.
- A believer must _____ on Christ's behalf, as well as convey His thoughts before others.
- "In all things shewing thyself a pattern of good works: in doctrine shewing uncorruptness, gravity, sincerity."
Titus 2:7
- In order to live before others with honesty, there are two things that must happen in your relationships, both with God and others:
 - ⇒ _____ that you will make mistakes.
 - ⇒ _____ the things that you have broken.

Third, you must seek to follow _____ wisdom and counsel.

- You can choose to live by your own experiences, or by the experiences and advice of _____ people.
- "Those things, which ye have both learned, and received, and heard, and seen in me, do: and the God of peace shall be with you." Philippians 4:9
- You need to _____ on the Bible and the wisdom that God gives through the Bible every day.

The best mind to have is the guilt-free mind of _____!

"Let this mind be in you, which was also in Christ Jesus."

Philippians 2:5
