

- What were the aftereffects of David's sin with Bathsheba?

First, sin brought _____ and anxiety.

- _____ and _____ are antonyms. They cannot dwell together in the same place. The devil can give a false peace, but not a genuine, real, lasting peace.
- When sin creeps in, peace slips out.
- There is only _____ source of lasting, real, genuine peace, and that is a person – Jesus Christ.
- "Peace be with you all that are in Christ Jesus."
1 Peter 5:14
- Peace isn't something that comes to a person by chance or luck. It is a _____.
- "And let the peace of God rule in your hearts, to the which also ye are called in one body; and be ye thankful." Colossians 3:15
- Will I let the peace of God rule my heart, or allow sin to rule my heart?

Second, sin brought a bitter _____.

- David's sin eventually caught up with him.
- “Be not deceived; God is not mocked: for whatsoever a man soweth, that shall he also reap. For he that soweth to his flesh shall of the flesh reap corruption; but he that soweth to the Spirit shall of the Spirit reap life everlasting.” Galatians 6:7-8
- The seed of wrongdoing may be sown in _____, but the harvest cannot be concealed.
- Sowing to the flesh brings the crop of corruption, but sowing to the Spirit yields a harvest of _____.

Third, sin brought _____.

- When David sinned, do you know what he did? He tried to _____ it.
- Sin brings shame, and in an effort to try to _____ his shame, David's sin just kept getting bigger and bigger.

Sin is pleasurable for a season, but Satan doesn't show the bitter _____.
