

The Normal Christian Home

Ephesians 5:33-6:4

Introduction:

- Our text deals with the home and demonstrates what a normal Christian home looks like. But it is all predicated on Ephesians 5:18 - the _____ of the Spirit.
- The main points of this message are written from a child's viewpoint. Hopefully, if your child were to describe your home, he/she would make these four statements.

1. Daddy _____ Mommy with all of his heart. vs. 5:33

- She is #1 and nothing comes before her. He is _____ in love with her and his kids know it.

2. Mommy thinks Daddy is the _____. vs. 5:33

- "Reverence" means that she shows _____ and admiration for him.
- Men desperately need this from their wives. Ladies, when you show _____ for your man, it's like electricity flowing into a 100 watt light bulb.
 - You're the electricity and he's the bulb. He _____ up.

3. I've learned it's always best to _____ Mom and Dad. vs. 6:1-3

- When you combine verses 1 and 2, here's what you have - kids are to obey their parents and obey with a _____ attitude.
- In the normal Christian home, kids have learned:
 1. When I obey with a right attitude, things go _____.
 2. When I don't obey or I'm disrespectful, things _____ go well. vs. 3

4. Daddy teaches us all how to _____ Jesus. vs. 6:4

- This verse is teaching that dads are the spiritual _____ of their homes. You teach your children about the Lord and how to love the Lord.
- Men, your _____ speaks 10 times louder than your _____.

If your home doesn't look like this, the good news is, God will _____ you right where you are at and help you through your problems and weaknesses.
