

TEAM BUILDING

Leadership – TEAM BUILDING

- Team building is a wonderful thing and as we, as a church, continue to grow, it is going to be a necessity.
- Boyle's law says, "If uncontrolled, work always flows to the most competent person until he... submerges."

Leadership – Team Building

- Now Moses made a common mistake. He mistook busyness for accomplishment.

- A leader who doesn't share leadership not only can bog himself down but the entire organization/church.

Leadership – Team Building

- Effective leaders acknowledge limitations.
- Effective leaders keeps ego out of the way.

Leadership – Team Building

- Effective leaders accept responsibility.
- We all need constant accountability if we are to stay the course.

- Many times it may seem easier to simply complete the task yourself, but in doing so, you are failing to develop and use the rest of the body of Christ as it is designed to function.

Leadership – Team Building

- By doing it myself, I may be failing to help other people grow in their leadership skills.
- Ask! You will never get help until you ask!

Leadership – Team Building

- Tell and show them what they are supposed to do. That way there is no question about what I am asking the person to do.

- Create a buddy system for each new person. Assign another capable person to work with this person.
- However, there is one thing you must remember to do first - Pray

Leadership – Team Building

- When you start people off right, they will be far more positive, motivated, and committed.
- As soon as the person begins, you should find an opportunity to catch him or her doing something right.
- If you want to recruit great leaders, it is very important to give away not only the responsibility for the work but also the authority to carry it out.

- This lesson was given to you today to show you how you can spread the load, how you, as an ambassador for Christ, can recruit and build a team or be on a team that will serve the Lord together.

- If you are a leader, lead effectively. If you are not a leader, be a leader or at the very least, be an active team member.
- Alone, I can make a dent, together we can make a difference.
