

- “Who is a God like to You, that pardons iniquity, and passes by the transgression of the remnant of His heritage? He retains not His anger for ever, because He delights in mercy.” Micah 7:18
- “Who, when he came, and had seen the grace of God, was glad, and exhorted them all, that with purpose of heart they would cling to the Lord.” Acts 11:23
- We must be glad when we see the grace of God given to others. Why?

First, because _____ have been shown grace.

- If you want grace, you must allow it for _____.
- If anybody should understand grace and rejoice in grace being given to others, it is a believer.
- “And be you kind one to another, tenderhearted, forgiving one another, even as God for Christ's sake has forgiven you.” Ephesians 4:32

Second, because it reflects the character of our _____.

Second, because it reflects the character of our _____.

- “And the LORD passed by before him, and proclaimed, The LORD, The LORD God, merciful and gracious, long-suffering, and abundant in goodness and truth.” Exodus 34:6
- “The LORD is merciful and gracious, slow to anger, and plenteous in mercy.” Psalm 103:8
- “The Lord...is long-suffering to us-ward, not willing that any should perish, but that all should come to repentance.” 2 Peter 3:9
- “Who (God) will have all men to be saved, and to come to the knowledge of the truth.” 1 Timothy 2:4

Third, because it _____ the lives of others.

- As you examine the life of Christ, one thing stands out clearly – He was merciful to the people nobody else _____ about. As a result of Christ’s personal interest in others, He saw so many lives touched and changed.
- As we demonstrate God’s grace, He can use us in mighty ways to _____ lives.

May we decide today to be _____ when we see God’s grace given to others!
